

Company Euro- terms & conditions for leather articles & natural skin parchments in 01 / 2022

All enclosed leather articles, colours- and skin parchments based on our regular wholesale ware. Other articles and specials may delivered on minimum order volumes when temporarily not available. Consider to order bigger volumes please ask for individual offers along your needed leather area- yield or full amount of formats. Our direct substitutions to tanneries allow us very cheap and flexible deliveries. Due long time leather- making experience we are able to generate own tanning technologies for approved quality leathers with attached documentation. We are glad to supply your designed leathers by contract tanning upon your individual or specific request inside the EU- state federation.
